Teen Citizens Police Academy Requirements

* Applicants must be 14 – 18 years of age.
* Applicants must not have been convicted of a felony crime and must not have any criminal or civil actions pending against them.
* Applicants and parent/guardian must sign allowing the Elizabethtown Police Department to check for criminal history.
* Applicants must agree to make every effort to attend all classes and give advance notice to the department if they will not be able to attend a class. One unexcused absence can mean termination from the course.
* Again, must have parent/guardian signature if under 18 years of age.

I agree to the above requirements of the Elizabethtown Police Department's Teen Citizens Police Academy and authorize the Elizabethtown Police Department to do a records check for any criminal history.
